WORKSHOPS

empowering young women

We are looking to inspire young women into having confidence and self-esteem in their growth years.

Our two day workshop includes exploring these topics and equipping them with tools, through the use of drama and makeup, and an inspirational female guest speaker.

This workshop is for high school seniors, but will consider younger students, please contact us to discuss suitability. For more information visit our Facebook page Talking Tall NZ.

empowering young women

Date: 4TH & 5TH OCT 2018

Venue: THE FRANKLIN
CENTRE, PUKEKOHE

Cost: $200 PER PERSON

Our two day workshop is designed to help build confidence and self-esteem through sessions based on drama and makeup, along with a talk from our guest speaker, Rachel Whitelaw, General Manager at ASB Securities.

While our workshops can be a great beginning or supplemental acting/makeup class for girls, the end goal is not to produce actors or makeup artists. Rather, we are looking to encourage the next generation of confident, bold, wonderful young women.

Times: The workshop will run from 10am - 4:30pm each day.

Venue: The Franklin Centre - Allan Wilson Room (downstairs).

What to bring:

- Lunch (Afternoon tea will be provided)
- Your own makeup
